Course Description – INDS 548

This course is designed to equip Christian leaders to be inspirational and effective in the secular world of work. It starts from mirroring Jesus as visionary, servant, teacher, coach, radical and healer. It looks at the power of conversation as a leader drawing from examples of Jesus' conversations. We will look at making difficult decisions, what are the moments that count as a leader and developing your own vision, value-added and vitality as a leader rooted in Christian values. It will draw from the practical experience of Christian leaders in diverse worlds. The course will equally be relevant to Christian ministers working with leaders in the secular world.
