The Incarnation is at the heart of what God has done "for us and our salvation." It reveals how we are to reflect God's character in the world. This examination of the Incarnation will focus on the key biblical texts and basic theological concepts by which the Christian tradition celebrates this wonderful mystery.

SPECIAL NOTE
There is a significant amount of reading due during the class week. Students are advised to read ahead if possible.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
At the successful completion of this course, student should be able to:
1. Articulate basic underlying features of orthodox incarnational Christology.
2. Trace the development of orthodox Christology, articulating the contribution of key Scripture texts to that tradition.
3. Identify recent trends regarding incarnational Christology.
4. Relate deeper understanding of orthodox incarnational Christology to personal and ecclesial identity, to spiritual and vocational formation, and to intellectual growth.
