

BIBL 568: SEEING JESUS MORE CLEARLY THE CHRISTOLOGY OF HEBREWS

George Guthrie

May 10 – 14; 8:30 – 11:30 am

1 or 2 graduate credit hours; or 1 audit hour

Live online & Recorded

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course presents an introduction and exposition of the New Testament book of Hebrews (especially the expositional sections focused on the person and work of Christ), with special emphasis upon the Christology of the book, understanding the book's structure (i.e., how it “works”), and the implications of the book's Christology for life, relationships, and ministry in the modern world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon the successful completion of this course, students should have a clearer understanding of:

1. be able to demonstrate knowledge of the historical, conceptual, and methodological backdrops of Hebrews, including matters of authorship, genre, recipients, purpose, rhetorical style, rabbinic techniques of argumentation, uses of the Jewish Scriptures, and the background of the author's thought;
2. be able to discuss the basic theological and hortatory content of Hebrews and demonstrate a comprehension of the book's overall development and structure;
3. be able to interact with the Christology of Hebrews, especially as regards its implications for life, thought, and ministry in the modern world;
4. be able to bridge hermeneutically from the ancient world to modern contexts, applying Hebrews to contemporary life (both personal life and church).
